FOREWORD

Millions of Americans enjoy The Flintstones. These characters in their pseudo-anachronistic settings make us laugh as they satirize our foibles and our sometimes misplaced enthusiasms. People need to laugh to relieve the pressures of the modern world. A country that can laugh at itself will survive.

The Class of 1962 of North Reading High School wishes to express its gratitude to Hanna-Barbera Productions for their permission to use The Flintstones to inject a little humor into our yearbook.

Mrs. A. Stephanie Delaney

We, the class of nineteen-hundred and sixty-two dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. A. Stephanie Delaney.

We appreciate her guidance and inspiring leadership as yearbook and class advisor. We will always remember her wonderful sense of humor in many trying situations.

A MESSAGE FROM MR SZUBERLA

As you, the members of the Class of 1962, step forward to receive your high school diplomas, you leave behind you the pleasant days of youth and proms and football games, and you enter into the mainstream of life. A new challenge now confronts you, for you are charged with the responsibility for moulding the future of our nation and our world.

At no time in our nation's history has the high school graduate been faced with such a tremendous challenge. The threat of international communism hangs over us like the Sword of Damocles, and the world is threatened with nuclear holocaust. And you, the graduates of the Class of 1962, will be numbered among those responsible for our future welfare as a people and a nation.

The challenge is great, but the tasks ahead are not impossible of achievement. Bold men and women will be required to face and meet the challenges before us. Personal sacrifice and supreme effort will be the order of the day.

William Shakespeare, that master of human psychology, once noted:

Our doubts are traitors,
And make us lose the good we oft
might win
By fearing to attempt.

Bear this in mind, graduates, as you leave North Reading High School to face the challenge of the future. Do not fear to attempt the unknown, for you may lose an opportunity to accomplish great good.

Your experiences in the past, here at North Reading High School, have been pleasant, and your accomplishments have been many and varied. Yet, past achievement will not sustain you on the road that lies ahead. You must rise to the new challenge. If you, and the other members of the Class of 1962 throughout our nation, can accomplish this, then our future is assured. Godspeed to you all in the tasks that lie ahead.

SENIOR CLASS SONG—1962

Words by Sally Ann Thomas
Tune: Making Whaapie

Another June,
Another class,
We've all been praying,
That we would pass.
We took the test.
You know the rest,
So long, North Reading.

We've worked real hard,
But we've had fun.
We hate to leave you.
The time has come,
For us to part now,
A brand new start now,
So long, North Reading.

We hope we'll be successful
In everything we do,
And if we are successful
The credit all goes to you.

We want to thank those,
Who helped us through;
We'll all remember,
Detention, too.
We should be glad,
Instead we're sad,
So long, North Reading.
